NUMB. 3016

THURSDAY, MAY 16, 1745.

Dresden, May 8.

HE King, Queen, and the two young Princes, set out this Morning for Lieplick, where their Majesties propose to continue till the Fair is over. The Troops that are to form a Camp in that Neighbourhood, are most of them in full March. On the 4th we sent thither 24 Waggon laden with Ammunition, under an Escort of 80 Men. We likewise sent some Battalions out of our Garrison, to secure the Troops destined for that Service; and some of the Circle are to take Post here in the time. Our Camp will consist of Corps much superior to those which the Prussians are assembling at Liepzig; which, according to the best Intelligence we obtain, do not exceed 12 Battalions, and 25 Squads. Their Majesties will visit our Camp during the time, and review our Forces; after which he will, without any farther delay, to take upon him the Command of the Forces in Bohemia. The Four Regiments of Light-arm'd Troops which have been sent for the King's Service in Poland, are in full march to join that Army; and we shall likewise send some of the Light-arm'd Troops from that Body, to be assembling in Lusatia, and which will be led there by a Regiment of Uhlans. The Count of Saxe-Weissenfels, who is to be replaced here by a Man of Importance, the Count de Cagnoni; who quitted, some time ago, the Russian's Service, to enter into that of Prussia. He is by Birth a Neapolitan; and perhaps, very maturely consider'd, before the Resolution was taken of sending him thither. We fancy we observe something very slow and mysterious in the Conduct of the Austrians and Prussians in Silesia; and some People will have it, that their Horses fire only at each other; if so, we shall soon hear the news of another separate Treaty; which would be as agreeable here, as to most of the Courts of Europe.

May 8. The Court seems to be extremely affected with the present Situation of Affairs in Germany. Peace with Bavaria has been ratified on both Sides, in the strongest Circumstances of cordial Affection; Orders have been sent into Hungary, for setting all Hungarian and Austrian Soldiers at liberty, and promising, in the best manner possible, for their speedy return Home. According to our last Advices from Silesia, the Prussians have invested the City of Jaggendorf, which has engag'd them to make several Attempts for its Relief, which have all of them hitherto been ineffectual; so that we hourly expect Advice of the Expedition possible, a very magnificent Equipage, and Serene Highness the Duke, Co-Regent, who has taken upon him the Command of the Queen's Army in the Rhine; which, it is said, will very speedily consist of 60,000 Men, most of them old Troops; which will be employ'd in driving the French from the neighbourhood of Frankfort, and in covering that City during the Time of the Election. It is believed, that the Promotion of General Bathian to the Rank of Marshal will be declar'd; and he set out, in order to take upon him the Command of all the Queen's Forces in Italy, on the 13th.

May 11. It is certain, that the States General are more occupied than at present, or the true result of their Deliberations better concealed. The French, who are here, but in too great numbers, had given out, in the strongest Terms possible, a Day or two before the Battle of Tournay, that the Duke of Waldeck had positive Orders not to attack the Army of his Most Christian Majesty; and therefore the News of a general Engagement alarm'd them to the last Degree; nor have the Letters they have received from Lisse, at all rais'd their Spirits. Instead of boasting of a complete Victory, and of the irresistible Force of the Household Troops, they are content to own it was a very bloody Affair, and that they had been better pleas'd to have sung Te Deum than the avoiding it, than for any Advantage they have gained by it. We hourly expect an Express from Prince Waldeck, with a distinct Account of the Behaviour of each of our Corps in the Battle of Fontenoy, and of the Officers who commanded them; with a Result of the Council of War that was to be held Yesterday, on such as had misbehaved.

IRELAND.

Dublin, May 7. Last Week died at Limerick, Francis Macnemara, or Cratloe, in the County of Clare, Esq. Last Friday the following Premiums promised by Dr. Madden, for the Year 1745, were determined at the Parliament House; viz. The Premium of 20 l. for the best and dearest Station imported under Eight Years old, on Oath of Price, and proper Certificates of Gentlemen, was adjudged to Thomas Place, of Barrack Street, for his Chestnut Stone Horse; which is large, strong, and well made, now let out to Mares, and cost 57 l. 15 s. first Cost. The Premium of 12 l. for the most Bulls and Heifers imported under Three Years old, Age, Length, Height, and Price sworn to, with Certificates as above, was adjudged to Edward Sims, of Castleloft, in the County of Westmeath; who imported in October last two Bulls and 15 Heifers, under Three Years old; one of the Bulls Two Years old, measured in Height 13 Hands Three Inches, in Length Eight Feet Six Inches, and cost 22 l. 17 s. Two Heifers, in Height 13 Hands, in Length Seven Feet Nine Inches, cost each 10 l. 4 s. 9 d. another Heifer, a Yearling, in Length Seven Feet One Inch, cost 6 l. 18 s. 7 d. first Cost, &c. There was no Claim for the Second Premium of 8 l. The Premium of 10 l. for the best Piece of Tapistry was adjudged to Richard Pawlet of St. Martin's Lane, who had served his Time to Mr. Beaver, for a Satree Bottom; and in regard Daniel Reyley, who had served his Time to Mr. Beaver, had produced a small Piece of Tapistry, well executed by him; the Society gave him 30 s. for his Encouragement, though there was no Second Premium. The Premium of 25 l. for most Salt made, fit for curing Fish or Flesh, was adjudged to Messieurs Wilson, Sharp, and Company of Belfast, who made 666 Ton of Salt in 1744; Messieurs John Scot, and Company, of Newry, made 499 Ton; and Mr. Philip Peck, 300 Ton.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Newcastle, May 11. Last Saturday the Countess of Oxford, with a great Retinue, arrived at the White Hart in this Town, and set out for Scotland last Monday.

On the 28th past was found on Bimburgh Sands, the Body of a Gentleman well dress'd, of a middle Stature, had on a Grey Cloth Coat, with Buttons of the same Colour; the Waistcoat of Silk Grooming, with Silver Thread Buttons, and lined with Red Shagreen; his Breeches Black Cloth, and he had good Boots and Spurs; his Breeches Pockets had been search'd and turned out by the Person who first found him: Three Handkerchiefs were found in his Coat Pockets, and two Samples of Corn, one of Peas, the other of Oats, a Pair of Black Gloves, also a cur'd Hair Comb: He was so damaged by the Sea, that his Features were not to be distinguish'd. There has not appeared as yet, any Evidence of what Money he had, Watch or Papers about him, whether they were lost or convey'd. He was order'd to be buried.

Newcastle, May 11. Arrived the Margaret and Christiana, Sorenson, from Norway; and the James and Helen, Wemes, from Dundee: Also several laden, and 34 light Ships.

Barnstable, May 12. The Vine, Thomas Salmon Master, from this Place, with Fish and Oil for Viana, is taken, and carried into St. Malo's. His Majesty's Sloop the Mortar, Capt. Cosby, sailed from this Place the 9th Instant.

Plymouth May 12. Just now came in Admiral Martin, with Nine Sail of Men of War, and brought in with him the Five following Prizes; viz. the Gracia, from Bourdeaux for Quebec; the Diana, a Privateer belonging to Bayonne, of 12 Carriage Guns, and 33 Men; the Friendship, Mason, from South Carolina; and the Aurora, Penckethman, from ditto, both for Cowes; who had been taken by a Spanish Privateer of 20 Guns, 230 Men, in Lat. 50. and the Flamborough's Prize, Dutch, from South Carolina for Cowes, also taken by the same 20 Gun Privateer. Came in the Plymouth Merchant, Broad, and the Anne, Quish, both from Bristol; and the Expedition Privateer, from a long Cruise, without a Prize.

Plymouth, May 13. Wind S. E. Saturday, after Post, came in the Charming Molly, Powell, of London, from St. Malo, and landed here the Company of his Majesty's late Ship the Anglesea, taken by a French Man of War.

Post, May 13. Wind W. About Four o'Clock this Morning the John and Mary, Elliot, a Brig from Weymouth for Farnham, to load Corn for Dublin, was taken by a French Privateer a League and a half from Studland Bay. She has Three Masts, carries 370 Men, and 1000 rows with at least 30 Oars. William Vincent, a Fisherman of Studland, whom she had taken, gives this Information. Capt. Elliot, &c. by favour of a Fog, had the good Fortune to escape in their Boat, and are now here. In the Bay is a Cartel Ship for St. Sebastian, with Spanish Prisoners.

P. S. The above-mentioned Privateer is between two and three Leagues from the Mouth of our Harb'our, so that some Coasters, who were going to load Stone for London, are put back.

Cowes, May 13. Wind S. The 8th came in the Anna Catherina, Salverston, from Norway, and sailed next Day to the Westward. Sailed the Maria, Neils, from Norway for Portsmouth. The 9th came in the Emanuel, Brodal, from Portsmouth, to load Salt for Norway, and sailed again the 11th; on which Day came in the Mary, Donvert, from Cork for this Place. At St. Kitts, the ———, Fell, from Lancaster.

At Cork, the Hope, Rofs, from Barbados.

At King's, the Catharine, Mclelland, from St. Kitts.

LONDON.

His Sardinian Majesty having marched a great Part of his Forces, in order to prevent the Junction of the Armies of the Duke of Modena and Don Philip, and finding himself thereby disabled from assembling such an Army of Observation as might be necessary, on the Side of Demont, has resolv'd to supply that Deficiency, by obliging his Subjects to leave all their Lands on that Side, for this Year, unshown; which will put it out of the Power of the French to march into those Parts, or maintain themselves long there if they do.

All the Letters from Paris agree, that the French Army consisted of 95,000 effective Men at the Time of the late Engagement; and that the Army employed in continuing the Siege, did not exceed 15,000 Men.

Some private Letters from the Hague assure us, that some of the principal Members of the Republick are more inclined than ever to declare War against France, and to the taking the necessary Measures to set on Foot, without Delay, another grand Alliance for reducing the exorbitant Power of that ambitious Crown, within such Limits as may be consistent with the Safety of her immediate Neighbours, and the general Tranquillity of Europe.

A Spanish Register Ship, from La Vera Cruz, is arriv'd at Cadix. She had been char'd 24 Hours by Four English Men of War, and got off from them.

Yesterday came Advice from New York, that two Privateers of that Place had taken a rich Ship, bound from Cadiz to La Vera Cruz.

The Ludlow Castle Man of War is arriv'd in the Tagus, with a large Fleet of Ships which sailed from England with Admiral Medey, and had a fine Passage of Eight Days from Plymouth.

The Royal Lewis, Aulsebrook, and the Duc de Provence, Dubois, from Bourdeaux for Martinico, are both taken by the Exeter Privateer, Capt. Pennell, of Exeter.

The Marie Eliza, Dubois, from Bourdeaux for Martinico, is taken by the Dursley Privateer, Capt. Veitch; and the St. Joseph N. S. de Granada, Capt. Lunn, from the Havana for Old Spain, with Sugar, Cocoa, Tobacco, and Specie, is taken by the Kouli Khan Privateer, Capt. Joseph Barker; and all the above Prizes are carried into Lisbon.

The Admiral, ———, from Martinico for Bourdeaux, is taken, and brought into Cork, by the Thurolo and Blake Privateers.

The Generous, ———, from Bourdeaux for Martinico, is taken, and carried into Barbados.

On Tuesday the Races began at Epsom Downs, when Five Horses started for his Royal Highness's Plate of Sixty Guineas. There were three Hears, but the Pate was won by Mr. Grey's Horse, tho' hard pushed by Mr. Early's Horse Windsor Shades.

There was no Race on Wednesday, for want of proper Horses being entered.

Yesterday Morning Fifteen Private Men were draughted out of each Company of the Three Regiments of Foot Guards, which amounted to 540, exclusive of Officers; and took Water on board several Hoys, in order to be carried to the Transports at Gravesend, bound for Flanders.

Yesterday the Lords of the Regency met at the Cockpit, Whitehall, and opened their Commission.

Mr. Walton, one of his Majesty's Messengers, arrived with an Account, that his Majesty landed on Sunday last in Holland.

Advertisement.

This is to acquaint the Publick,

THAT Mr. Hauksbee's Medicine for the Cure of the Venereal Disease, in the Way of an Alterative, without Salivation, or Confinement, is only to be had of Mr. John Watson, Apothecary, near Hungerford-Market, in the Strand, London, at one Guinea the Box; containing Twenty-one Pills, with Directions.

Where may be had gratis,
Mr. Hauksbee's Offer to the Publick, for communicating the Composition and Preparation of this Medicine, for the Use of the Army and Navy, and for the general Benefit of Mankind; together with the Experimentum Crucis.

The two Pamphlets, containing an Account of the Effects of this Medicine in the first Forty Cases, are printed for, and sold by James Roberts, in Warwick-lane; and at the Pamphlet Shops in London.

N. B. By the Facts in these Pamphlets, it fully appears, that this Medicine is more Safe and Gentle, and more certainly Efficacious in the Cure of the Venereal Disease, than any other Medicine now known to be in Use for this Disorder. As the Appeal to Experience has been publicly made, and the Gentlemen of the Faculty have not been able to invalidate the PROOF, and decline coming to the Test of the Experimentum Crucis, above-mentioned, it may be presumed, that all impartial Judges will pronounce IT unexceptionable.

Fra. Hauksbee.
